

Selling Real Estate: What You Need to Know

As part of our continuing commitment to making investing in real estate easier, we are offering a self-service option. Account owners may instruct Pacific Premier Trust to execute an Appointment of Agent which allows the account owner the authority to take any action and execute such documents deemed appropriate or necessary to close the sale of the real estate investment by the account.

Before closing, the following Pacific Premier Trust forms are required for this self-service option:

- Real Estate Sale Authorization Form
- Appointment of Agent (Hold Harmless Agreement)

The following is required within 2 business days of the closing for this self-service option:

- Executed Warranty Deed and any other information or documents specified by Pacific Premier Trust.
- Actual net proceeds deposited into the account. (Note that if the account is an individual retirement account or qualified retirement account, holding proceeds directly by the account owner prior to deposit may constitute a distribution from the IRA or a prohibited transaction under the Internal Revenue Code.)

THE FOLLOWING IS REQUIRED IF PACIFIC PREMIER TRUST WILL BE COMPLETING THE REVIEW OF CLOSING DOCUMENTS FOR THE REAL ESTATE SALE:

Third Party Documents Signed "Read & Approved" by the Account Owner

Anything for which the escrow company, title company, or attorney requires a Pacific Premier Trust signature or initials must be signed by the Account Owner as "Read & Approved." NOTE: Some escrow or title companies will not accept the documents after the Account Owner signs them "Read & Approved"; please submit both a "clean" and "Read & Approved" copy to expedite the transaction process.

Additional Requirements:

- Real Estate Sale Authorization Form
- Draft Conveyance Deed
- Estimated Settlement Statement or HUD
- Additional Escrow/Closing Documents, if they require a Pacific Premier Trust signature (If applicable, any supporting documentation required by the legal jurisdiction in which the property is situated, must be completed in full by the client.)
